CHECK YOUR PASSPORT/ID

We strongly recommend all guests travel with a valid passport with at least six (6) months validity during their cruise. U.S. citizens may travel with both a government-issued birth certificate and government-issued picture ID card, such as a driver's license. However, this can present challenges if you need to depart the cruise for emergency reasons in a foreign port.

CONFIRM TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

Unless you reside near the Los Angeles area, we recommend guests arrive at least one day prior to embarkation to ensure a smooth process. If you do arrive on the day of embarkation, please note all guests must be onboard no later than 3 PM PT. Upon our return on March 3, 2023, disembarkation usually begins around 8 AM PT. Due to the time it takes to clear customs and border patrol, and navigate local traffic, we do not recommend booking a return flight any earlier than 12 PM PT.

PURCHASE TRAVEL INSURANCE

Entertainment Cruise Productions offers you the Travel Guard Preferred Travel Insurance plan through our partnership with Travel Guard. We strongly recommend guests purchase a policy to protect their investment. Insurance can be purchased up to 48 hours prior to embarkation. For more information and purchasing options visit startrekthecruise.com/pricing/travel-insurance.

CREATE AN ACCOUNT WITH ROYAL CARIBBEAN

To create your account, visit royalcaribbean.com/booked. Once your account has been created, Star Trek: The Cruise will appear in your Upcoming Sailings. Use your Royal Caribbean account to purchase Shore Excursions, book Specialty Dining Restaurants, explore the out-of-this-world offerings in the Spa and more!

Please note, recent manifest changes may not yet be reflected in My Royal Cruise. Please allow 14-28 business days to update.

EVENINGS ONBOARD

SHOW SEATING PROCEDURES

Seating for Main Shows in the Royal Theater is first-come, first-served, and are split based upon BLUE/RED SeaPass Card(s).

On Embarkation Day, you will receive either a BLUE SeaPass Card(s) or a RED SeaPass Card(s). This card has several uses (room key, charge card for onboard purchases, identification card for embark and disembark) and serves to confirm which of the nightly Main Shows you will attend. Guests with BLUE Cards attend the 1st Main Show and Guests with RED Cards attend the 2nd Main Show.

Each night, you will receive a Daily Program delivered to your cabin, which will highlight the next day's activities, and provide more information about shows that are split between BLUE and RED.

S.A.F.E. SEATING PROGRAM

The S.A.F.E. (Seating Assistance for Entry) program is an onboard accessibility program designed to allow safe and convenient access (for a guest and one companion) to the Royal Theater for each evening's Main Show. Designated S.A.F.E. areas will be clearly marked and reserved for those who require assistance and submit the requested information. The S.A.F.E. section is typically located near the rear of the Royal Theater. All S.A.F.E. requests must be submitted no later than 45 days prior to the sailing. Guests who do not complete the required S.A.F.E form may face delays onboard.

Registration for the S.A.F.E. program can be found online at startrekthecruise.com under the Booked Guests tab.

THEME NIGHTS

Star Trek: The Cruise celebrates different dimensions of the Trek experience with an extraordinary array of Theme Nights.

GORN'S PAJAMA PARTY

Whether you arrive for Star Trek: The Cruise via warp-speed travel from Cestus III or simply beamed to the terminal from nearby Starfleet Command, what could be better than a party in your most comfy bedtime attire? Join the Gorn in the Promenade dressed in your favorite Star Trek pajamas or as your favorite Star Trek character decked out in sleepwear for a stellar time. You'll do anything except fall asleep as our Gamma Shift DJ keeps the warp core thrumming while interstellar cocktails are poured. You can also head to Chase Masterson's Pajama Karaoke Party to belt out your favorite song!

THE CAPTAIN'S GALA

Attention all crew and UFP members, you are cordially invited to The Captain's Gala! This is the night to dress in your best uniform for a night to remember. Start the evening with world-class entertainment in the Royal Theater and dine like royalty with a superb formal night menu. Later, we'll have a reception fit for a captain, complete with dancing and revelry!

KNIGHTS OF THE HOLODECK

The phaser is mightier than the sword, but both have been known to slay a dragon! While the Black Knight prepares for battle, it may be time for you to arm yourself with your trusty Bat'leth. Tonight, we transform the Holodeck into a medieval world abundant of Nausicaan Nobles, Vulcan Vassals, Cardassian Clergy, and Pakled Peasants partying like its 999!

Our guests knock it out of the park with show-stopping cosplay that turn heads, while making memories that will live on forever!

THE TREKING DEAD

The world of Star Trek is filled with scary situations and horrifying aliens, and isn't it time for the Red Shirts to rise from their graves for revenge? From Borg assimilations to encounters with Species 8472, on this night we will celebrate the darker side of Trek with a Zombie Red Shirt pub crawl, Scare Zone on the Royal Promenade, and culminating with a party sure to wake the dead!

BAJORAN GRATITUDE FESTIVAL

We're grateful to be celebrating 30 years of Deep Space Nine with many of the series stars joining us on Star Trek: The Cruise. Come one, come all to our very own DS9 Promenade Party to jot down your worries, woes, and concerns on a Renewal Scroll and "burn away" your problems in the flames of the firepit. Don't worry, the pens are free much to Quark's disapproval! Then, join us for the Bajoran Gratitude Festival filled with music and dancing, hosted by Colonel Kira herself, Nana Visitor. Peldor joi!

Q'S COSTUME PARTY

By the power of de Lancie, Q's Costume Party has become an annual, legendary event on Star Trek: The Cruise, thanks to the greatest costume contest in the galaxy. Q, who has appeared to us as everything from a Franciscan monk, an interstellar judge, a 16th-century sea captain, and an Aldebaran serpent, is the only choice to host this epic costume party. Join host John de Lancie and use your own shapeshifting ability to transform yourself into anything elaborate and outrageous. With prizes up for grabs, the competition will be fierce, so bring your creativity!

MEET THE CREWMEMBERS FROM DEEP SPACE NINE!

We will be celebrating the 30th Anniversary of Deep Space Nine onboard! Meet the DS9 cast members that will be joining us in 2023!
